

Learning Disabilities Mortality Review
(LeDeR) Programme

Telling the LeDeR programme that someone with learning disabilities has died

Improving the quality of care for people with learning disabilities

The Learning Disabilities Mortality Review (LeDeR) Programme is commissioned by the Healthcare Quality Improvement Partnership (HQIP), on behalf of NHS England.

Telling us that someone with learning disabilities has died

Anyone can tell us that someone with learning disabilities has died.

You can tell us via our website
www.bristol.ac.uk/sps/leder/notify-a-death

You can phone us on our private phone number
0300 777 4774

What happens then?

The deaths of people aged 4-74 years old would be checked to see if we can learn anything that will improve services for people with learning disabilities
